The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. HE taketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leaders me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: And I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.~ Psalm 23

“ I didn't find out until Dec 29th that Aaron had passed away. I must've been the last person to see him. I had been sick and he was insisting that I'd go to the doctors. I said nah I'm good man I'll be ok. After work he came over and brought me food from the restaurant. I was grateful. No matter what Aaron was a good person. I was supposed to do something for him that night but I was sick and not feeling it so I told him I hadn't finished it and that if he wanted I'd take it to him later that night. He said cool. He told me if I come back in the morning and you're still sick I'm taking you to the emergency. I'm like fine. Then he gave me a big hug and said I love you man. I said I love you to bro. Then he left. I text him after that I got no answer. I figured he was asleep. I never saw him again. Crazy thing about all of it is that that day I had a dream I was having a heart attack. Aaron was a great friend and like my brother. I miss him everyday. But I'm glad he's at peace. Lucas Mariscal
