

Agaftia Prata

June 9, 1935 - August 12, 2012

Agaftia Prata, "Mica" Agaftia Prata was born in Romania on June 9th, 1935. Her family and friends called her "Mica", which is an affectionate nickname for "mom" in Romanian. She passed away on August 12, 2012, at Peace Health Southwest Medical Center, in the loving presence of her children and grandchildren. Mica was a committed mother and wife who raised ten children in the harsh conditions of the Romanian countryside during the communist regime. She immigrated to the United States together with her husband, in order to secure a better future in a land of freedom and opportunities for her family. When coming to the United States, she had to leave behind her parents, and start over a new life from scratch, with courage and commitment to a better life for her children. Mica was gentle and kind. She was a very supportive wife, with strong beliefs in the values of marriage and church. She had a great sense of humor and enjoyed to smile and be hugged. She was very patient and forgiving. During her healthy years, she loved to grow flowers, fruits and vegetables, and cook traditional Romanian dishes. She also enjoyed traveling back to Romania to visit her parents. And most of all, she enjoyed spending quality time with her children and grandchildren. Mica was preceded in death by her son Nelu, her mother Rafila, and her father Petru. She is survived by her husband Ilie, nine children (Ileana, Silvia, Andy, Ana, Agafia, Anthony, Daniel, Olimpia and Adina); and twenty-two grandchildren (Danny, Alin, Diana, Claudiu, Claudia, Justine, Timothy, Alexander, Cristian, Vanessa, Brandon, Jordan, Kristin, Mike, Alex, Alexia, Nicholas, Justin, Isabella, Benjamin, Sonia and Jonathan). The viewing is scheduled for Thursday, August 16, 2012, 6-8 pm; and the funeral service will be held at the Evergreen Memorial Gardens on August 17, 2012 at 12:30 pm. Mica will always be loved and remembered.
