

Agnes Rose Lunde

December 21, 1924 - June 5, 2020

Agnes Rose Lunde, 95, of Vancouver, Washington, passed away on June 5, 2020, peacefully in her sleep surrounded by her family.

She was born in 1924 to Lavina and John Goggin on their family farm in Kildare, Minnesota. Agnes graduated from Benson Junior Senior High School in 1942.

She married James Randolph Lunde on May 12, 1956 after they moved together to Vancouver, Washington to be near family.

In her spare time, Agnes loved to make quilts, to spend time smiling with and baking for her family, to golf, and attend exercise class at the Firstenburg Community Center with her husband, to eat ice cream, and to go to the beach. She was also a member of the St. Joseph Catholic Church.

Agnes will be remembered as the most hospitable, caring, and happy little Irish lady with a heart of gold.

Agnes is survived by her loving husband James of 64 years; their two children: Roxann Marie Bergeron and Rodney Thomas Lunde, Rodney's wife Cindy, their granddaughter, Megan Elizabeth Bergeron; as well as countless other extended family members.

She was predeceased by her six sisters and four brothers.

Agnes will be cremated at the Willamette National Cemetery in Happy Valley, Oregon.
