

Albert Nels Palm

September 19, 1918 - April 29, 2010

ALBERT NELS PALM Sept. 19, 1918 ~ April 29, 2010 Albert Nels Palm, 91, died April 29, 2010, at his home in Vancouver, WA from congestive heart failure. He was born September 19, 1918 in Seattle, WA to John and Elizabeth Palm, both of whom immigrated to the United States from Sweden. His life was centered around his family, especially his beloved wife of nearly 65 years, Gladys, who passed away in 2006. He enjoyed travel, fishing, hiking, camping, boating, home improvement projects, and reading books of history and inspiration. His Christian faith was the foundation of his life. Albert worked as a meat cutter, and managed several meat markets in the Seattle area before and after his service in the Navy from 1943 to 1946. In 1954 he began a second career as a driver-salesman for Continental Baking Company until his retirement in 1981. He is survived by his daughter, Betty Hartman; and two sons, Allan and John, all of Vancouver. In addition, he is survived by three daughters-in-law: Nancy of Mercer Island, WA, Pamela of Vancouver, and Nancy of Vancouver. He is also survived by one son-in-law, Joe of Vancouver. He also had nine grandchildren and six great-grandchildren, with a seventh to be born in July. He was a beloved uncle to many nephews and nieces spread across the Northwest. He also had a number of extended family members in Sweden. A son, Jerry; a daughter, Susan; and a sister, Bernice, preceded him in death. A memorial service will be held Fri., May 7, 2010 at 2:00 p.m. at Brush Prairie Baptist Church, 11814 NE 117th Avenue. Evergreen Memorial Gardens, 1101 NE 112th Avenue, has been entrusted
