“ You nicknamed me Ahole at the age of 14 thankfully it never caught on and you eventually quite calling me that in my mid 20's. You and your father (my grandfather) were all way's a big inspiration to me in life, business and dealing with people. You were a great role model and a very caring, sarcastic, charismatic, person. May you rest in peace. Troy

“ A lifetime of memories with you my big brother....I never wanted to stop making them...but life doesn't let us make all the choices. You were the best big brother in the world....at least after we grew up and you stopped being annoyed with me....I love you so very much, I miss you so very much....and there are so many things I wish I would have told you. You were always my hero. I felt safe just knowing you were here. I feel an emptiness now that I cannot even begin to know how to express...and I don't think it will ever go away. Selfishly I wish you were here, but I am so glad you are not struggling and suffering any more....you always downplayed what you were going through, but the evidence was so very clear when I came for our final visit. You are so amazing....you just kept on going and setting things up to take care of everything for everyone else. So strong, so beautiful.... For always I love you, and for always I will miss you...because of having you for my big brother....I am blessed. Be painless....be free....fly with the angels my precious big brother...â™¥
