

Alice Eleanor Eigsti

August 20, 1912 - July 17, 2010

Alice Eigsti, 97, went home to be with her Lord and Savior on Saturday, July 17. Alice has now joined her husband Harry, daughter Eleanor and son Gordon in Heaven. She is survived by her son, Roger (Mary Lou); sister, Winifred McGhehey; brothers, Howard, Eugene, Karl and Harvey Heimbuch; seven grandchildren; and sixteen great-grandchildren. Alice was born in Friend, NE, to Heimrick and Emilia Huber. She attended high school in Lincoln, NE and after graduation became a grade school teacher. Alice married Harry in 1933. In 1941, her family followed her mother's family across country to Vancouver WA, pulling a trailer with all their worldly possessions. Alice and family immediately began attending Glad Tidings Church, now LifePoint, and was a member until death. She and Harry were very involved at Glad Tidings where she was a teacher, Sunday School Superintendent and choir member. She truly loved the Lord and let everyone know she was anxious to meet her maker.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

---

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 05:32 PM