

An Ngoc Le

September 8, 1938 - February 29, 2024

An Ngoc Le, born September 8, 1936, in Vietnam, passed away peacefully at his home in Camas, Washington on February 29, 2024.

An was a loving husband to Cuc Ho, whom he was married to for 60 years until she passed away in 2015.

An was a devoted father, grandfather, great-grandfather of 7 children, 8 Grand Children, and 7 Great-grandchildren. He was a family man through and through, always putting his loved ones first and cherishing every moment spent together.

An was a proud pilot of the Vietnamese Airforce until he migrated to the United States in 1975 at the rank of Lieutenant Colonel. Soon after, the family settled in Camas, Washington with the help and sponsorship of the Camas First Baptist Church. In order to support a family of 11, An jumped straight into work at the Camas paper mill and worked tirelessly until his retirement in 2005.

Outside of work, An had a wide range of hobbies and interests that brought him immense happiness. Most of all, he loved to fish and was often seen at various lakes with his grandchildren teaching them how to fish. An was a well-respected leader of the Vietnamese Association of Clark County and a proud member of the National Vietnamese Airforce Association.

An will be remembered for his leadership, his kind and gentle nature, his unwavering loyalty to his loved ones, and his genuine love for life. His legacy of compassion and generosity will live on in the hearts of all who knew him.

A ceremony for An will be held on March 11, 2024 at 9:45 a.m., at Evergreen Memorial Garden in Vancouver, Washington. He may be gone from our sight, but he will never be forgotten as his spirit will continue to shine bright in the lives of those he touched.
