“ I will always love you Uncle Roger. My fondest memorey is when I was all of 11 or 12 we were at the park watching him play softball with the guys he worked with at the mobile home factory in Ontario, Ca. And one of the guys called him Andy. And I politely informed him that he was my Uncle and his name was NOT!!! Andy. Uncle Roger laughed, ruffeled my hair and said that was just what the guys from work called him. Of course years later I found out that his name was Andrew. Feeling very silly I told him. By then I was 19 or 20 and again he laughed and said I did not have to call him Andy that I could always call him Uncle Roger. So to me You will always be my Uncle Roger. Love Cindi
