Angelina "Angie" "Ena" Roberta (Milonich) Salvato A Vancouver resident since 1949, Angelina Roberta Salvato, 87, passed away at home Thursday, January 2, 2014 after a courageous battle with cancer. Her funeral will be at 12:30 p.m. Tuesday, January 7th at Memorial Gardens Funeral Chapel, with a private interment in Willamette National Cemetery in Portland at a later date. Angelina was born March 2, 1926, in Ketchikan, Alaska to Mabel and Robert Milonich. She graduated from Ketchikan High School. On January 4, 1946 she married the late Clyde "Joe" Salvato, who was enlisted in the U.S. Coast Guard. Together they were stationed at Point Retreat Lighthouse in southeast Alaska and North Head Lighthouse in Long Beach, Washington. In 1949, they moved to Vancouver, Washington, where they owned rental properties, service stations, and a rental car agency. Upon moving to Vancouver, Angelina worked in numerous restaurants, including the Quay, Hollands, and Bart's Wharf. She was an active member of the Gateway Elks #2411 and an Emblem member of the Vancouver Elks #823. Additionally, she was a member of the VFW and the American Legion. Angelina was of Tsimshian descent, a shareholder of Sealaska, an Alaskan Native Regional Corporation. She was a member of the Episcopal Church. She was an excellent cook, and enjoyed bowling and social events. She was loved by all and will be greatly missed. Angelina is preceded in death by her parents Mabel and Robert, her late husband Clyde, son Robert, and sisters Pauline Williams and Jackie Guzliak. She is survived by her significant other of seventeen years, Rodney French, son Dominic Salvato of Anchorage, AK, and sisters Ethel Staton and Shirley Robards of Sitka, AK. She is also survived by grandchildren, Cindy Salvato, Gina Simonson, Angelina Salvato, Scott Salvato, Brian Salvato, Monique Salvato, and Anthony Salvato and numerous great grandchildren. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to: Ray Hickey Hospice House, 2112 E. Mill Plain Blvd. Vancouver, WA 98661 or the American Cancer Society, 0330 SW Curry St, Portland, Oregon 97239.

“ Dominic; So sorry for the loss of your Mother. She was a beautiful lady. I knew you in Jr. Hi. I believe you were a friend of my cousin last name Cooney. My Mother also worked at several of the restaurants and they may have known each other. I think of my Mom every day. It is not an easy thing to go through. May God and his Angels bless you and keep you from sorrow and pain. Contact me:sweetpea445@comcast.net
