

Anna Belle Johnson

May 5, 1916 - October 26, 2009

Anna Belle Johnson moved to her home in heaven on October 26, 2009. She passed peacefully, as she had lived because of her abiding faith in God. She was thankful for her salvation through His Son. She was adopted by Edith and Edwin Cunningham at 9 months old. She was always grateful for the life she was given. She began teaching in a one room school house at 18 when she finished Oregon Teaching College. She taught first grade at Orchards Elementary the last 22 years, she then substituted until she was 78. Anna Belle is survived by her four children; Vicki Parkinson, New Westminster, B.C., Karen Rose, Ted Person and Wes Person all of Battle Ground, WA; three step-children; 16 grandchildren; two step-grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren. She is preceded in death by first husband, Melvin G. Person (1978) and second husband, Keith Johnson (2003). She lived the last several years at Mallard's Landing in Battle Ground, WA. She loved her family deeply and told them everyday. Memorial service will be held at Proebstel Evangelical Free Church on Saturday, October 31, 2009. at 9:30 a.m. Donations may be made to the Evangelical Free Memorial Fund for Black Lake Family Camp. Special thanks to her many friends.
