

Anna Mae Ness

October 17, 1940 - January 23, 2014

Mom passed on January 23, 2014 @ 12:30 am in her home with her family beside her. On the day we could bring Mom home she said to me "We're all here" and I asked her who was all here Dad, Grandma, Aunt Alley? I did not get an answer from her but I could see the peace in her eyes that came with those words. May we all find peace in knowing that Mom when out on her own terms and in her own good time. The pain of her loss we feel may linger but her love will always be with us. Love, Vicki and family

“ I am so sad by Aunties passing. What a wonderful woman, she was my all time favorite person. Never a cross thought about anyone. I wish I could be more like her.

“ I so enjoyed knowing her in art class. She always brought laughter, joy, peace, and a sense of well being to us. She has been missed these past several months. May she and all the souls of the faithful departed rest in His eternal peace.

“ My Aunt Annamae was the most loving person. She had the most beautiful smile that would brighten your day. When I was going to get married 44 years ago I decided that I wanted my Aunt Annamae to be my matdon of honor. She was honored to do that for me but she and my mom (Loretta Gardner) told me I should have a friend be my maid of honor but I only wanted it to be my aunt. Bob, Vicki, Richard and Brian, my heart goes out to you. Love Cousin Sharon Gardner Simovic and Skipp

“ The way Aunt Anna Mae would express herself when she told her stories, you were always drawn in, just like you were a part of the store. My Aunt Anna Mae had the most infectious laugh. She would light up and you along with her. Aunt Anna Mae I will miss you very much. My thoughts and prayers go out to the family in this time of sorrow.

“ What a wonderful lady!!!! I can truly say that my Auntie was the most jolly and tender hearted women I have ever met. I will cherish her amazing smile and angelic spirit. She touched the lives of everyone she came in contact with. I thank her for leaving such an incredible impression on me. I love you Auntie. Forever, Kimberly

“ Your mom was the type of person you would want anybody to meet. She sure made an impression on me when I meet her in 1966 . I loved going to the house , we're there was always her unique laughter she always had plenty of food around, always wanted to hold my babies. You could tell by the way she held them that she was an angel from heaven loving those precious babies. She made this world a piece of heaven.

“ Auntie, I can not imagine not talking to you and sharing stories. You have always been my inspiration for the way you have always treated other people and the look on your face when you hold a baby is so beautiful. You will always be remembered for the smile on your face and the incredible stories you told while we were all sitting at your feet. I so enjoyed visiting with you these past few months and there had better be a place like Hawaii in Heaven for you to enjoy with Uncle Bobby. Love you forever. Thank you for your wisdom and friendship.
