October 27, 1938 - January 5, 2015

ANNETTE MARIE (WYBORNEY) JONES October 27, 1938 ~ January 5, 2015 "She Was" She started her new life and I was only nine when she came into my life. I didn't know what to think but in a blink of an eye she meant the world to me. She tried to be everything to me and she was. The memories I have with her will never fade from my mind. Holding my hand through anything I needed a hero in disguise. A person to count on and she was never did she think twice and soon we became each other's life. The other day someone asked me who my hero was and I pointed and said that angel over there. An angel she was a person who was full of love. She was mamma always said. If there was a picture of love it would be of her and she was. She was an angel sent from above. Nikki 2010 Annie, known to many as "Aunt Annie", was a compassionate and caring friend and person - whose smile touched many people's hearts. She was a sister to Michael Wyborney and loving wife of Rodger Jones. For over more than a decade she found comfort with her new adventures with Michann and Nikki. Fishing, vacationing, and watching her great-niece play basketball. Though we will miss her - she will always be with us in our hearts.
