“ Seems like yesterday I held you in my arms as we fell asleep in my dad's long armed chair in the living room. In many ways you were my first child. I watched you grow up from a distance and heard so much about you. Despite not seeing you, I loved you so much and enjoyed hearing about you from your dad. I will miss you and miss hearing about your successes and joys 😊. You impacted so many. Rest well my first baby. God must have a purpose for you upstairs that is greater. You will always have a special place in my heart little cuz. Love "Aunty" Morgen and Aunty Pauline Forde

“ My Godson Antoine who called me Grandma was so outgoing and energetic, there was never a dull moment. Always willing to help and make us smile. I knew he would be a star athlete when he started walking and running at 8 months old. Pop Warner coaches praised my two grandsons, Antoine and Iggy, the MVP,s and the fastest runners on the team. I may have physically lost my two grandsons but their spirit is with me every day. RIP Boys

“ In 2009 I spent a couple of weeks in Vancouver Washington at my brother in-law and his family, on the Saturday Antoine came upstairs and said to me uncle you have to go to my game this afternoon I said I don't really like American football if it was soccer he said you're going uncle even if I get auntie to tell you come and go, after that persuasion I told him okay I'm going but you have to score at least one touchdown he look at me and smile and said I'm going to score three touchdown for you especially, I told him yea right ,when we got to the field the afternoon the game started ,I can gladly say my nephew didn't score one touchdown but he scored either four or five touchdown and the referee didn't give him the final one whis would of made any wide receiver in the NFL jump for joy and that have stuck with me and always will nephew I love you sleep in peace until we meet again .

“ I have so many memories of Antoine it's hard to just pick one. But my favorite is Antoine loved Hanna so much and loved being with my family when he was little. Practically every day he would race over to our house after school and run inside to play with Hanna he would sit down and have a snack because he was a part of our family. Poor Tara always had to run around and look for him and eventually she realized he was always down here at our house. Antoine was at every birthday party I drove him on my school bus from kindergarten through fifth grade. I loved him like he was my own 💔💔💔

“ There are so many memories, it's hard to pick just one. I remember when Antoine came to the clinic for his check ups. He was such a tiny ball of energy that everyone knew when he was there. Once, when he needed his immunizations, he became so upset at the nurse that he put her in "time out" for poking him the arm. I will miss him so much.

“ One of my many memories of my son was when his brother Akeem was just a month old and I had put them both to bed before I went to sleep I peeped in to check on them both. I found Antoine sleeping in the crib with his brother he said he was crying so he got in the crib with him until he went back to sleep.

“ My personal favorite memory of Antoine would be my first Christmas living in Vancouver and my uncle had gotten me this absolutely large Christmas tree. He said I had to decorate it myself, and antoine words was 'Ma we going to make this tree the most sexiest tree on the block' and he sure did we spent hours decorating, took a million photos till my uncle got vex with him on the ladder holding akeem posing. Antoine spent more days in my room in my bed more than I did, arguing didn't make a difference cause all he would say 'that's what u get for moving in with your son'. That statement have been repeating in my head every since, I truly miss u my son. I love you endless beyond words our relationship was beyond anyone could understand. Until we meet again and I promise to bring your pizza and lemonade slushy.. I love you and miss you t
