“ My grammy was one of my very favorite people on this earth. She loved her family, cats (who were family,) flowers, and cooking. Her last spoken word was "love." I will always miss our mornings together, guessing how many spoons were in the wash, playing Pinochle, Scrabble, and Yahtzee, and talking about whatever we were thinking. I wish I could bring her some chocolate or Twinkies one last time. Or watch Wheel with her. Or take her shopping. Or hear her laugh. I wish I could give her another hug. I read that grief is merely love displaced. I suppose that is true. I will love her always and I truly hope she knew that.

“ Dear Friends and Family of Arlene, my heartfelt sympathies for your loss. Arlene and I were friends for over 30 years and I would say, and think she'd agree, that we made the most of our time together. Despite our age difference, we were like two peas in a pod and relished our time together cooking, eating and gardening. I love and miss my dear friend more than I can say.
