

Audrey Charlene Wallace

December 27, 1934 - January 28, 2015

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

MW

“Humble of nature, kind and gentle of demeanor, Audrey was an entirely loving mother and devoted wife. How she loved to transform a house and make of it a warm, inviting home. Moreover, she possessed a great sense of humor – such a wonderful smile and laugh. Unquestionably, Audrey loved her restaurant work – touching thousands of lives in a positive way as the many years passed by. I recall happy, fun times visiting her, my Uncle Harv and cousin Patti – especially through the 1960s. My Aunt Audrey – “made a difference” - a legacy that will never be lost. It is woven into the very fabric of life.

Mike Wallace - February 02, 2015 at 12:00 AM

JD

“I worked with Audrey at roses then at clearys, she quickly became a great friend, I loved her dearly and feel that the world grew dim, as heaven glowed a little brighter, Your an angel now Audrey, I love you, and forever you will be my audball, Julia davis

Julia Davis - January 31, 2015 at 12:00 AM