

Austin Henry Wolford

February 21, 1995 - July 6, 2014

AUSTIN HENRY WOLFORD February 21, 1995 ~ July 6, 2014 "Austin was known for his crooked smile, quick wit, and sense of humor. But, it was his soft soul and sensitivity for others that set him apart from everyone else." Austin Henry Wolford was born Feb. 21, 1995 to his parents, John and Cindy Wolford. He became the baby brother to John and Hannah and six years later became the big brother to Quentin. Austin joined his grandparents in heaven on July 6, 2014. He graduated in 2013 from Heritage High School, as a 3-sport varsity athlete. Austin spent 6 years in the Boy Scout program and 4 years in band, but his true love was sports. He spent six years on the football field for Heritage and Frontier and 10 years on the baseball diamond for Evergreen Little League and Heritage. His true passion was wrestling and he dedicated thousands of hours on the mat with Heritage, Askeo Wrestling Club and Southwest WA Wrestling Club. This is where his true calling as a leader and captain came through. He loved his teammates as his brothers and would have done anything for any of them. "No" or "Can't" were not words Austin knew and he always "Found a way or made a way!" Austin is survived by his parents, John and Cindy Wolford; his siblings, John Wolford, Hannah Wolford and Quentin Wolford; his sister-in-law, Michelle Wolford; and niece, Jayden Wolford; grandmother, Diana Wolford; special great-aunt and uncle, Debbie and Bill Grilli; girlfriend, Brooke Ekman; and many aunts, uncles, cousins, teammates, and friends. He was preceded in death by his grandfathers, David Burkhart Sr. and John Wolford, Sr.; and his grandmother, Becky Burkhart.
