

Avalon Drew Ligman

September 29, 1992 - March 8, 2011

"He is most remembered for his upbeat character and sense of humor."

Avalon was born in Amsterdam, NY, but he adopted Vancouver, WA as his hometown since the age of four. Avalon was a senior at Union High School in East Vancouver and would have graduated this spring. He was well loved by his classmates, teachers, friends, and family. He will be sorely missed.

Avalon's love of music and singing was nurtured in the Union High School Choir, where he competed in state championships every year since he was a freshman. He was to compete again this year. Avalon is survived by his older brother and sister, two parents, and four grandparents. His celebration of life ceremony will be held on Sat., March 12, 2011 at 1:00 p.m. at LifePoint Church (www.lifepointvancouver.org). To see videos and pictures of Avalon, visit unionchoir.org.

“ I didn't know your son, but I do have a son that attends Union HS as a senior as well. I'm so sorry to hear of Avalon's passing. I can't imagine what your family must be going through. Please know that we all embrace and pray for your family through this difficult time -- even those you've never met.

“ Heather and family, I am so sorry you have lost such a wonderful son. His friends have complimented Avalon with the utmost respect, friendship, love, and tons of caring comments. You can tell he is truly going to be missed. His choir picture shows a super handsome, young man. Know that my heart hurts so much for you... if there is anything I can do, at any time, please don't hesitate to call me.
