

Barbara Joan Clark

January 26, 1949 - November 1, 2010

Barbara J. Clark, 61, of Vancouver WA, passed away November 1st, shortly after being diagnosed with acute leukemia. Barbara was born to Charles and Gertrude Higginbotham in Olympia, WA. After graduating from Canby High School, she enjoyed traveling through the United States before returning to the Pacific Northwest and beginning a career with the United States Postal Service that spanned more than 35 years. Barbara managed the USPS East Vancouver DCU, the largest delivery unit in the district. Barbara had a great love for animals, particularly senior dogs in need of rescue, collecting old books and reading, gardening, and spending time with her family each year at the Oregon Coast. She had a keen interest in people, travel and the world in general. Barbara is survived by her daughter, Sydney Clark; and son, Kevin Clark; siblings, Richard (Vickie) Higginbotham, Carole King, Dennis Higginbotham, Susan (Daniel) Montana; nephews, Brad (Jennifer) and Brian (Andrea) Higginbotham; nieces, Madeline and Gabrielle Montana; and great-nephew and niece, Max and Haley Higginbotham.
