

Barbara A. Crump

February 23, 1945 - October 2, 2024

Barbara Ann Lloyd was born on February 23, 1945, in Kansas City, Missouri to Mary Jones and Willie Lloyd. She was the second youngest of her siblings, Willie Mae, Mary Jo and Donna Faye.

She was raised in Dalton, Georgia during her formative years until she graduated from Emory Street High School in 1963. Shortly after receiving her diploma she moved to Detroit, Michigan and began her career with Michigan Bell telephone company (AT&T) where she remained for more than 20 years. She was a dedicated employee during her working life. As well as a dedicated and loving mother to her children, Jacquetta and Eric. Barbara eventually met and married Richard Crump and gave birth to her youngest child Ebony.

Barbara and Richard joined Temple of Faith Baptist Church where the family served as active members for many years. Barbara served on the usher board, drama club and kitchen committees. She loved her church family and remained in close communication with many until her death.

Upon retiring from Michigan Bell Barbara remained active working a few small jobs including a short career with Detroit Public Schools supporting young people as a school bus attendant.

Barbara will be remembered for her caregiving, kindness, generosity and humor. She enjoyed spending time with her family as well as her friends, traveling and shopping. Throughout her life Barbara tried to take care of as many loved ones as she could, often offering her home as a place of comfort and love.

In 2023 Barbara relocated to Washington State with her daughter where she remained until her passing in October 2024 after a long illness.

Barbara is preceded in death by her mother Mary, her sister, Willie Mae, her husband, Richard and children Bennett, Tammy and Jacquetta.

She leaves her children Eric, Ebony, Angela, Richard, Michelle, Heath and Heather. Her sisters Mary Jo and Donna Faye, 13 grandchildren, a host of nieces and nephews and a wonderful group of friends to cherish her memory.
