

Barbara L. Rodgers

August 28, 1940 - October 15, 2024

In Loving Memory of Barbara L. Rodgers ("Bobbi") It is with profound sadness that we announce the passing of our beloved, Bobbi Rodgers, on October 15, 2024 at around 3:57 PM. Born on August 28, 1940, she lived a life filled with kindness, grace, and an unwavering spirit.

Bobbi, was not only a loving grandmother but also a devoted mother, wife and friend. She touched the lives of everyone she met with her warmth and generosity. Her legacy is one of love, resilience, and an inspiring ability to find joy in the simplest of moments.

She faced life's adversities with strength and grace that inspired all who knew her. No challenge was too great for her indomitable spirit, and her ability to persevere was a testament to her character.

One of her greatest joys was traveling the United States with her beloved husband. Their journeys together created cherished memories that filled their lives with adventures and love. She was always Don's gigglebox, bringing laughter and light to his days.

She is survived by her husband Donald Rodgers; her daughters, Dawn Choquette, Shelli Rodgers, and Diane Salyers; her son, Brian; seven grandchildren; twenty great grandchildren; and her sister, Margaret Goss; who will forever cherish her memory and the invaluable lessons she imparted. We will remember her for her bright smile, her comforting embrace, and her raw unfiltered approach to life. She was the epitome of straightforwardness, always telling it like it is with unwavering honesty. There was no pretense with her—she cut straight to the point, yet always did so without a hint of judgment. Her candidness was a breath of fresh air, and her genuine nature made her a trusted confidante. She was the kind of woman who saw things as they were and spoke her mind with kindness and integrity, making everyone around her feel truly seen and understood.

A service to celebrate Bobbi's life will be held on October 27, 2024 at Evergreen Memorial Gardens, Vancouver, Washington at 12:00 PM.

We take solace in knowing that she is now at peace, reunited with her siblings Jan Clark, Jack Holmes, Bud Holmes, Joyce Allison, Jean Nyquist, and Clarence "Sunny" Holmes. Her memory will live on in our hearts forever.

“ Grandma,

You will be missed so much! I am grateful for the memories you gave me. You were an incredible woman!

You are a testament to resilience and unconditional love. Even after a stroke left your right side paralyzed 30 years ago, you still cross-stitched my wedding and baby announcements, framing them as cherished gifts.

You took me on an unforgettable trip to Juneau, Alaska, and we even ferried to Canada, a journey that showcased your adventurous spirit. Our road trips across the United States were filled with laughter and discovery. I remember you dressing me up for the county fair, buying us matching shoes to go with our sunglasses, and matching your vibrant red car. Your independence and loving nature truly set the bar for all humans.

Love you, Grandma.

XOXOXO

“ I love the way you love me. You never changed on me even when I went through rough patches in my life you were always there, still loving me the same. I loved going to the movies with you, riding with you to hobby stores and going to your groups with you and having a nice lunch with you and your friends. I loved when we went to see Helen and gave her love. I loved how much you cared about people and your beautiful spirit, your beautiful smile your contagious laugh. I love you so deeply grandma and I will miss you till we meet again. What may feel like forever to me may be no time for you. I know you're at peace now and happy. I hope through my time here on earth I can make you proud of me, while you watch over me. Love you to the moon and back my beautiful queen.

“ Everytime I go to write a memory I keep trying to write it to Grandma, as if I'm talking to her, I just miss her so bad and I miss talking to her everyday, she'd listen to me bicker and then she'd use everything within her might EVERY NIGHT to tell me she loved me. Then she'd give me a kiss and hold my hand. Grandma got to where she couldn't talk anymore at all, her communication was slipping fast and words became hand gestures which soon became nothing at all, but EVERY NIGHT she did everything she could to tell me she loves me. And I know without a shadow of a doubt my grandma loved me with every ounce of her being. She never made me feel any different. When i would cry she would grab my hand and hold it. There was many mornings she didn't feel good enough to get out of bed and me nor papa could convince her to get up and go in the living room, she would grab my hand and look at me with the sweetest eyes then point to papas side of the bed (that was her way of asking me to lay with her) I would ask her "You want me to lay with you grandma?" She would say "yeah" with the most precious voice, one I couldn't ever say no to, I will forever cherish those morning snuggles and I will forever be grateful that near the end she felt comfort in my presence. I miss her so much.

“ I remember when I was younger, great grandma would always have to tell me to stay away from the fridge whenever I was over because I would try to mess with all the cool little magnets.
