

Barbara Anne Wood

July 27, 1927 - November 29, 2009

Barbara Anne Wood, 82, of Vancouver, WA, passed away peacefully Nov. 29, 2009. The daughter of Pearl and Carl (Bill) Goodwin, Barbara was born in Pendleton, OR and grew up with her two brothers, Richard and Alan. She studied nursing at the University of Portland and later worked in medical and dental care. Barbara met Milo "Mike" Wood while ice-skating on Vancouver Lake and the two were married Sept. 9, 1950. They remained happily married until Mike's passing in 2000. A loving and thoughtful mother, grandmother and aunt, Barbara will be remembered always for her vibrant personality and constant caring for those around her. Barbara was an avid reader, a wonderful storyteller, and an infinitely caring and generous person. Always ready and willing to lend her support or crack a good joke, she enjoyed hosting lunches with her friends, going out with her family and bird watching. Barbara leaves behind her son, Tom; daughter, Melinda; four grandchildren, Katlyn, Carolyn, Jackson and Logan; niece, Barbara; nephew, Doug; and many friends. Her strength and positivism were an inspiration to all who knew her.

Tribute Wall

KI

“ I will dearly miss Mrs Wood I worked for Merry Maids and cleaned her home number of times she was so sweet I truly am sorry for your loss. I myself just lost my Mother on Nov 27th funny because they were both at the same funeral home here at evergreen memorial. My deepest sympathy Kim Shaffer.

Kim - December 07, 2009 at 12:00 AM