

Beatrice L. Griffiee

September 9, 1917 - December 12, 2010

"Bea will be remembered for her sense of humor, dedication to family, and for her kindness to friends." Beatrice "Bea" L. Griffiee of Vancouver, WA, fought valiantly, but succumbed to cancer after having lymphoma for many years. She was born in Iowa and migrated to Washington State in the early '40's with her husband, Frank, and two sons, Don and Dick. Another son, Jerry, who was born here, and currently lives in L.A. She is survived by 11 grandchildren; 21 great-grandchildren; and eight great-great-grandchildren. Bea worked in the laundry and dry cleaning business and was acknowledged for her strong work ethic and quality control. She loved working in customer service and could always remember every customer's name. Bea loved gardening and would often be found in the garden with her walker. She also loved the beach and made many wonderful trips there with her family. Holidays were always complete with many pies. At potlucks she would bring enough food for everyone. Bea never missed a birthday and every relatives name, however distant. She had a fantastic memory and recalled every detail of family history. She was a member of the Columbia Presbyterian Church for years and enjoyed the lunches with the ladies after church. Our thanks go the staff at Van Vista, and Dr's. Kolibaba and Swan.
