BEATRICE LANGWORTHY PIERCE December 17, 1914 ~ December 12, 2011 "She will be dearly missed by her family." Beatrice Alyne Langworthy Pierce of Camas, WA, passed away on Dec. 12, 2011. She was born Dec. 17, 1914 in Wilmot, SD to Clarence and Mary Langworthy. It was there she grew up with her brother and two sisters and graduated from high school in 1932. Beatrice married Harry Pierce on Aug. 11, 1937. They raised their three sons until Harry passed away in September 1960. Beatrice retired from Pendleton Woolen Mill in 1980. She was an active member of the Bethel Congregational Church in Washougal, WA for many years. She also volunteered for both the local library and the Treasure House. Beatrice is survived by her sisters, Marjorie and Marvelyn; sons, Gary and wife Elaine Pierce and Wayne and Norman Pierce. She also leaves behind seven grandchildren; and 10 great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Harry; and brother, Robert. The family would like to express their gratitude to the staff at Columbia Ridge Assisted Living for their loving care over the last four years. Also, heartfelt thanks to the staff of Southwest Washington Medical Center and of Ray Hickey Hospice Center. Services will be held on Dec. 15, 2011 at Evergreen Memorial Gardens at 12:30 p.m. In lieu of flowers, please donate to the Ray Hickey Hospice Center in Vancouver, WA in her memory.
