

Berthold Werner Arndt

October 24, 1932 - September 24, 2016

BERTHOLD W. ARNDT October 24, 1932 ~ September 24, 2016 Berthold W. Arndt, 83, passed away September 24, 2016. He was born in Hamburg, Germany on October 24, 1932. Bert grew up in Hamburg raising pigeons and worked for Lufthansa Airlines. He enjoyed a childhood passion of playing soccer for Hamburg's soccer club. He came to LA in June of 1965 with his wife Ingrid and son Heiko to pursue the Great American Dream continuing his soccer career. Bert worked as a tool and dye maker. In 1972, he moved his family to the Pacific NW and continued coaching soccer and providing for his family. Bert was a true man in every sense, and an amazing husband and father. He worked hard, played hard, and pursued his many passions. He had a wicked sense of humor and a quiet strength. Although retired, and according to him, he never had enough time and was always overworked and underpaid. Bert is survived by his wife of 59 years, Ingrid; 2 sons, Heiko (Beth), Kalispell, MT, Bernd (Julie), Tigard, OR; grandchildren, James, Dakota, Cheyanne, Emmerson; and dog, Fritz. A private service was held for the immediate family. We would like to thank the compassionate staff of the Ray Hickey Hospice House for their kindness, love, and support. “ Thinking of Bert I remember childhood days and the wonderful uncle who lived so close to us.
Htten wir doch mehr Zeit gehabt. Aber wer im Gedchtnis seiner Lieben lebt, der ist nur fern.
