

Betty June Anderson

July 11, 1935 - April 16, 2024

We thought we knew the gravity your absence would have, but you were larger than life. The impact is deafening and there's no way around this pain, we have to go through it. That's the heaviest part.

You thoroughly enjoyed life, and you let everyone see it, hear it, feel it, know it. Your signature laughter echoes. Your lit up face, bright like the light you are left a shine on those you loved -- left a glow on the spaces and places we must learn to be without you.

Your everything -- your husband, of what would have been 65 years next month, is now guided by the grace of God your marriage thrived in, as his heart is crushed without your physical warmth. Your incessant protector and provider, you breathed his strength, his comfort, his reassurance, basking in his constant and faithful: "I got the good one" you'd insist. Yes, you did, and that goodness was shared in every way and in every day. To remember the details, he's hung the same picture of you in every room, so you'll always know the important question of the day: "What room are we going to be in?"

We all knew you'd put up a fight when your hour was near, as you promised to never leave his side. And a valiant, brave, courageous fight you made. You let go only when he convinced you that God loves you even more. You went from all-in to slipping away slowly, and we are comforted in knowing that you held on for a week and a half beyond expectation, to allow each of us our personal time, and together time...what we do best, the strength to grieve your passage. When your fingertips fluttered, we knew your wings were ready for flight.

You're all around us now, your husband Terry - the love of your life, your two daughters, your nine grandchildren, and your fourteen great grandchildren.

Your imprint on this earth will carry the best parts of you forever and proudly.

To have known and loved such a beautiful soul is to know that it's we who "got the good one". Our angel in heaven ~Betty June (Caraker) Anderson Wife,

Mother, Grandma, GG...07.11.1935 - 04.16.2024
