

Betty Marie Briggs

July 22, 1940 - November 3, 2009

Betty Marie Briggs, of Vancouver, WA passed away November 3, 2009, due to complications following surgery. Betty was born July 22, 1940, in San Francisco, CA to John and Charlotte Enslin. She grew up in Salem, OR and graduated from North Salem High in 1958. She married Forrest Anglemyer (deceased 1998) of Kent, WA in July 1959, raised five children, and divorced after 30 years of marriage. They lived in Germany, Auburn and Puyallup before moving to Vancouver in 1981. Betty was a receptionist and interviewer for Washington Employment Security for over 20 years when she retired in 1998. Betty married Ron Briggs of Vancouver, WA in June 1997. Betty loved spending time with her husband, friends and family, laughing and enjoying life. She loved traveling, family campouts, the sauerkraut circle, potluck barbecues and pig-roasts, bowling, her hair day and the online RuneScape game. Betty will be greatly missed and will continue to live in the hearts of many. She is survived by her beloved husband of twelve years, Ronald Briggs; siblings, Patricia Rigg and Larry Enslin; children, Audrey (and Roderick) Nims, Valerie (and Benjamin) Goetz, Forrest Anglemyer Jr., Roxanne (and Kelly) Thompson, Trevor Anglemyer; step-children, Paula (and Jay) Maden and Dustin (and Shawna) Briggs; 25 grandchildren; and 20 great-grandchildren. Her brothers, Robert and George Enslin, preceded her in death.
