

Betty J Raymond

July 4, 1931 - September 2, 2021

BETTY JUNE RAYMOND

July 4, 1931 ~ September 2, 2021

Betty June Raymond passed away at Cascade Park Adult Care Home on Sept. 2, 2021. She was born July 4, 1931, to Oscar Coy and Dorothy (Ramsay) Coy in Bend, OR.

Betty went to Gresham High School and Prairie Bible Institute in Alberta, Canada. She worked at Meier & Frank in Downtown Portland for 26 years as a Buyer in multiple departments. She was a member of local artist groups and a hospice volunteer at Ray Hickey House.

Betty was a gifted artist. She loved to paint landscapes and animals and her specialty was portraits of people, using oils on canvas. She loved to surprise people with the portrait she had painted of them and watch their reaction. She loved to travel with her husband many times to Europe, Panama Canal Cruise, Hawaii and Mexico.

Betty is survived by her husband, Michael Raymond of Vancouver; stepdaughter, Christine (Shelton) Louie and seven grandchildren; and sister, Micky Christensen of Spokane, WA. She was preceded in death by parents, and brother, Daniel Coy.

Donations can be made to local hospice and Alzheimer's Association. A special thank you to Doina Mirza, Tom Fulwider and Karmen Penry.

A graveside service will be held at Evergreen Memorial Gardens, Wednesday,

Sept. 22, 2021 at 2 p.m.
