May 5, 1938 - March 19, 2010

Betty Ann (White) Rector passed away peacefully at Ray Hickey Hospice House in Vancouver, WA, in the presence of family on March 19, 2010. Betty, the baby of the family, was born to George and Pauline White in Roseburg, OR on May 5, 1938. Following graduation from high school, she moved to Portland, OR where she met and married her husband in 1959. Through his Air Force assignments, they lived in many places in the United States, and also in Europe and the Mid-East, where Betty was able to indulge a love of travel. Among her favorite places were the Rhine Valley in Germany, Athens and the Acropolis in Greece, and the Southern Turkish coast. While living in Austin, TX, she studied computer science, and thus began a life-long enjoyment of computers and gaming that was put to good use in assisting her husband's law practice following retirement from the Air Force. Overriding all other interests, however, was her love of family. She was never happier than when surrounded by her loved ones. Betty is survived by her husband, Roy; children, William (Diane), Roy (Jo), Judie (Lee) Blount, and Christopher; brothers, George (Nancy) and Frank (Mary) White; sister, Lois McAlpin; five grandchildren; and nieces and nephews.
