BIENVENIDO KABILING DUCUT

Born on March 5th, 1941, Bienvenido was the 4th among 7 siblings of Priscillano Espinoza Ducut and Mercedes Kabiling Ducut both from Lubao, Pampanga, Philippines. He has 4 brothers, Francisco, Teofilo, Carlito, Priscillano Jr. and two sisters, Rosita and Amelita.

Raised by Apung Ising, who was the inspiration of integrity and compassion, the Ducut's were brought up with the values of hard work, deep faith in God, and foremost, the principle of solidarity.

"Benjie" as he was fondly called, has embedded all these values.

Determination and persistence to free himself from poverty, he attained his bachelor's degree in Education as a working student. He started his career at Lubao Institute where he served as Registrar and later became a biology and math teacher for more than thirty years.

He met Generita Susi, his beloved wife, while working at Lubao Institute and there began a true love story with commitment, dedication and sacrifice. They were blessed with three children Anna Lucia, Bienvenido Jr. and Carlo and one grandson, Gian Karl.

Upon his retirement as a teacher, Benjie worked at Subic Bay Cooperative Credit Union as administrative assistant in Olongapo for more than five years. Then, to be near his family, he worked at Mt. Pinatubo Commission at Clark Airbase in Angeles City until the time he and his family immigrated to the United States in 2000. He worked for several different companies then ended his professional career at the United States Postal Service as a mail handler until he retired in December 2015.

In his spare time, Benjie enjoyed singing karaoke, crabbing, going to the casino, attending family events and spending time with his grandson. Bienvenido Ducut will be deeply missed by his friends, family, and all who knew him.
