

Bonnie Jo Bloom Pierce

May 9, 1953 - September 21, 2020

Bonnie Jo Bloom Pierce passed away Sept. 21, 2020, in Vancouver, WA. She was born in Spokane, WA, on May 9, 1953, to Edward R. and Thelma (Pettis) Bloom.

Bonnie had a BA in early childhood education from Eastern Washington University. She was a crochet designer and was a member of the Crochet Guild of America. Bonnie enjoyed gardening, reading, crocheting and lapidary. She had a wonderful smile and Bonnie loved to introduce crocheting to people from around the world.

Bonnie is survived by her husband, William; sons, Tim and Anthony (TJ); and daughter, Katie Pierce Massey.

She was preceded in death by her parents and son, Kevin.

Memorial donations are suggested to Community Home Health and Hospice in lieu of flowers.

A special thank you to Community Health and Hospice, especially to hospice nurse, Kami.

Tribute Wall

MH

“ She was my best friend since first grade. She had a wonderful spirit and drew people to her. She was an amazing crocheter. I miss our until- 3:00-a.m. gigglefests. I miss her so much! She is in Heaven now, waiting for the rest of us. Love you, Bonnie! ”

Mary Hubert - March 07, 2023 at 12:00 AM

JB

“ My sister could sing "Oh Holy Night " like an angel. Bonnie is singing with the angels now. Joel Bloom ”

Joel Bloom - September 26, 2020 at 12:00 AM