

Bonnie Vinita Thompson

August 2, 1920 - February 13, 2013

Bonnie Vinita Thompson passed away on February 13, 2013 at Brush Prairie , WA. She was born August 2, 1920 to Erbert B. and Ida Victoria Spears at Saylor, Oklahoma. She married Andy Thompson on January 4, 1939 and they settled in Hanson, Oklahoma. Later the family moved to Yakima, Washington. She worked in many different occupations in addition to being a housewife and mother. One of her main occupations was a cook for various restaurants in Yakima. Bonnie loved to cook and was good at it. She loved flowers of all kinds. Bonnie and Andy always has the prettiest yard in their neighborhood. Bonnie and Andy lived in Yakima, Seattle, and Vancouver, Washington. Bonnie was preceded in death by her husband of 61 years, Andy, and five siblings. She is survived by her sons, Andy Thompson (Lois) of Yakima, Tommy Thompson of Battle Ground, three grandchildren, Debbie Whitford (Nelson) of Battle Ground, Michael Thompson (Heather), and Robbie Downey (John) of Yakima, and great grandchildren, Andrew Thompson of Battle Ground and Georgia Emery of Yakima. She is also survived by her very special nieces, Sharon Dow (Don) and Janet Edwards (Bob) of Vancouver. Bonnie was a wonderful wife, mother, grandmother, and "Auntie". Special thanks to Julia and Richard at Bright Care Adult Family Home of Brush Prairie for their wonderful care and to Hospice SW of Vancouver. Burial will be at Evergreen Memorial Gardens next to her Andy.

“ Bonnie was my great grandmother but also a lot more in many ways. Bonnie helped raise me with Andy they were both amazing people that were blessed on this earth with awesome personalities and true love and passion with life. I will miss Bonnie very much but i am glad she is now at rest and peace with Andy. I only hope to do my best and make them proud of me as they watch over from above..
