“ Its been so long since my dad passed I had almost forgot this page existed.. I wish we could be here when my daughter Avery is born.. only 3 more months till then... she would have loved him so much. I loved him so much... not a day goes by where I don't think of him.. I wish I could hear his voice one last time.... I miss him... I love you daddy

“ i met Brandon in the 4th grade. i was the new kid and he was the first person to be my friend. we were best freinds. i moved away for couple of years. and came back to vancouver. i went to 9th grade at covinton jr high and re-united with Brandon there. we were going to start a band we even had a name for it. we were typical kids breaking rules pushing boundaries and laughing and loving our lives. brandon taught me how make girls smile and laugh and he had easy charm. we lost touch over the years, but he has always had special spot in my childhood memories. and always will. thank you Brandon.

“ Thank you to all, you have been the best support in our devastating time. I spent most of my life with Brandon in it, since I was 15 years old. He will always be the first, best love of my life. I look at our children and know that we were meant to make those 2. Their beautiful faces remind me of the man I met so long ago. The 12 years we had together, plus 6 more as parents apart are full of wonderful memories. Brandon, I always loved you. I hope you are at peace now. I will always love you and wonder why you thought this was the best decision. Rest in peace.

“ To Brandon's family and friends- I am sorry for your loss. My heart goes out to you. I knew Brandon for several years and have many fond memories. My favorite one's are when he would play the guitar with a huge smile on his face and would try so hard to get me to karaoke with him(It worked only once).He was great with computers and surprised me many times by downloading movies when he would fix an error on mine. He would always have some story to share about his children, who he loved dearly ! Brandon, you will be missed! We had our share of laughs and disappointments, and though we lost touch over the years, I will think of you when I see the painted sky. Goodbye, until we meet again, my friend, Paintedmess..
