“ I worked with Brian at the Washington State Highway Building in Vancouver around 1973 through 1975. I was the illustrator for the Department and remember many good times with Brian. Can not believe it has been so many years ago. Brian was a good man and I was very sorry to read he had passed away. Will always remember him and his humor. Taught me many little important lessons during my years in Vancouver. I remember him writing me when Mt St Helens erupted, that his father died on the same day. He wrote the only importance of that date was his father passing away. Thanks for the memories Brian.
