

Brian Marshall Jones

September 23, 1968 - August 12, 2016

Brian Marshall Jones September 23, 1968 August 12, 2016 Brian Marshall Jones was born in Chehalis, Washington to Rickey Jones and Wanda Jones. He grew up in Toledo, Washington with his brother and graduated from Toledo High. Brian married his high school sweetheart Sonja Sapp and they had two children, Philip Marshall Jones and Tia Lynn Jones. He served in the United States Army for 4 years after graduation and always remembered his service days warmly. One of Brian's first and greatest loves was always music. He played in several bands through the years from Toledo, Washington to Portland with the latest being Two Minute Miracle. In 2004 he married Brenda Cyrus and accepted her daughter Krystal Cyrus as his own. He died, very suddenly of cardiovascular disease, doing something he loved in a beautiful place, backpacking with his family in the wilderness on the Pacific Crest Trail. Brian is survived by his mother Wanda Bandurski, brother Richard Jones, wife Brenda Cyrus; children Philip Jones, Tia Jones, Krystal Cyrus, Mandy Rasmussen-Mann as well as his granddaughter/daughter Athena Cyrus. Other grandchildren include Brianna Green, Alex Mann and Sean Mann. He also leaves behind many devoted family and friends
