“ My dearest Brittany,

*I still can't believe you are gone. I always thought we would have more time to talk, time to forgive, time to heal. That's on me. We ran out of time. I never thought you would leave the world before me. I hope you know how much I have always loved you, I have and always will think of you every single day. I fell in love with you before you were born, and I fell in love with you again when you were born into this world and they laid you on my heart and chest. You can see it in my face. I found a letter I wrote to you when you were 5 years old. I'm going to continue to write you letters. I have so much I still wanted to tell you. I will just have to write it in letters for now. Until we see each other again. Rest in Peace, my sweet baby girl. I love you so much.

“ Q: How did you meet Brittany?

A: I never got the chance to see you in person, but I remember being a silly little 12 year old playing an online game when I met you.

It's been maybe, 14 years since then? I can't believe how time flies.

We'd play for hours, we'd talk about anything and everything, we'd laugh and we'd cry. I can't believe you're gone, but it brings me comfort that somewhere, our online characters are immortalised.

I miss you. Have a good rest now.

“ She was such a giggly little girl. We took her and my two granddaughters to the Grand Canyon . I think she was about seven. Chasing a squirrel everywhere. I finally told her squirrels were rats with bushy tails. She stopped. I told her my middle name was corn and that's what she called me from then on. Kandy corn. She is gone too soon but wil never be forgotten. ❤️

“ Brittany I was there when you were just a little girl . So full of joy and always a smile on your face . You loved your Momma so much . I still will never forget at your 3rd bday party you opened a present and said stupid baby and threw it on the floor ! You were precious and a spitting image of your mom ,my best friend. Rest in peace sweet girl . I am so proud of you and the woman you became .just know you are truly missed and loved 😊
