“ Mom introduced my sister Reva and me to a world of culture through literature, classical music, and dance. She taught us an appreciation for the gorgeous beauty of nature around us and literally broadened our horizons . We caught her excitement for travel and are truly grateful for her love and guidance. Thank you, God, for the gift of our mother, who led us to You.

“ Wherever you are at this moment I know that you are smiling. Because of you, who you are and when you were, we found Marla and Reva. And Marla found Buzz! We are all united as family once again because of you Aunt Burnice. I will always remember you as you were when we celebrated your 96th birthday last year. Love you to the Moon and back always.
