

C. Jhame Tichenor

August 3, 1973 - September 29, 2010

Memorial Donations to King's Way Christian School. 3300 NE 78th Street, Vancouver, WA 98665 Christine Jhame Burkdoll Tichenor, 37, of Vancouver, WA, passed away on Sept. 29, 2010. She was born in Yakima, WA, Aug. 3, 1973 to Lon E. and Judi A. Burkdoll. "Jhame" attended Bellevue Community College. She enjoyed gardening and traveling and her beloved Boxer, "Marley". Jhame enjoyed visiting and working with seniors who looked forward to visits from both she and her son, Jacob. She had the rare ability to greatly touch seniors positively, many of whom looked upon her as a loving part of their life. Jhame had fond memories of her time with co-workers at Division of Child Support, Labor & Industries and the Office of the Attorney General. Special thanks to friends, Dave Christel and Charles Isely. Jhame is survived by her son, Jacob Tichenor; mother, Judi A. Burkdoll of Vancouver; father, Lon E. Burkdoll of Goldendale, WA; brother, Lon E. Burkdoll, Jr. of Vancouver, WA; numerous aunts, uncles and cousins; and her and Jacob's Boxer, "Marley".

“ She gave me a kitten when she was only 17 yrs old, she had found it but was unable to keep him. She named him Maxipads, we called him Max for short. It was my kids's first cat. She babysat for me a couple of times after that, but then our house burned and we had to move, I didn't see her much after that. She still remembered me and added me as a friend on facebook, that made me feel good. I don't think I told her about Max, not making it out of the house and dying. I am sending my and my family's condolences, you had a special girl, I wish you well. To you Jhame, may you rest in peace. Rhonda Atkins and family

“ Jhame use to come and play with my son Eric. I do believe that was how I met Judi. My heart is broken for Jacob, Judi, Lon Sr and Lon Jr. May our good and gracious God give you peace now and for the rest of your lives. May God also give you the strength and the courage to greet each new day from now until you met her again. With love, prayer, and much sympathy. Cathy Dressel

“ We continue to reflect on great memories and shared laughter with Jhame. Trick-or-treating won't be the same this year without her - she was such a joy to be around. Her death is so shocking, and our hearts go out to her family. Jacob, she will be watching over you with love. She loved you so very much.

“ Judy please contact me! I moved to Austin, Tx and I heard and couldn't find you. :(I loved Jhame very much she was a dear friend to me. Our son's played together and Jhame and I would just hang out at her moms house having dinner's and spending time together. I have photos of us all over at Judy's for Halloween must have been in like 2005 or 2006. Jhame had a gift to decorate. She helped me decorate my new house in Washougal. One thing is for sure Jhame is a beautiful woman inside and out, in life and in death. She always cared about others and put herself last. After my divorce we lost touch I am sad about that. :(Love You Jhame! Prayers are with Jacob and the rest of the family.

“ I still have a lovely painted box that Jhame gave me for Christmas when I worked with her in Vancouver, must have been 1996. It sits on my dresser and I think of her often. I worked with Judi, too, and this message is for you dear. You raised a beautiful and compassionate daughter and you will miss her always and forever. At this difficult hour, though, please know that so many people are praying for you, sending out messages of love and support. Praying for your comfort and peace.

“ Offering our condolences to the family and her young son. Jhame and I went to high school together and although we were not close friends, I remember always seeing a smile on her face and her love of life and those she had around her. God has taken an angel far too soon, but I know she is watching over and protecting those who she loved and loved her. May she rest in peace and may her family and those close to her find peace in this tragedy. She is no longer sad, she is walking with the angels and she is watching over you all. Rest in peace sweet girl.....
