“ Camdyn, my little bean sprout, my heart swelled the moment you came into existence. I can still see you being pulled into the world from me. It pains me that it was for such a short time but I will count down each day until I can see you again. Even though I can no longer hold you against my chest and run my fingers through your hair I know my loved ones are holding you tightly on the other side of the rainbow bridge. I'll never forget your beauty and your love. I can only pray you'll never forget mine. With upmost love, your mother.

“ Dearest Camdyn, you came into our lives just barely a month ago. You were so small and helpless. I helped feed you and change your diapers. I watched you sleeping in my arms. You were so beautiful. It was love at first sight with you. When I heard that you were gone I couldn't believe it. I keep waiting for you to come back but I know that you cannot be here on this Earth any more. You have made a profound impact on everyone that you came into contact with while you were here. I love you and miss you terribly. Grampy
