

Carl Glenn Livingston

May 23, 1931 - August 26, 2015

CARL GLENN LIVINGSTON May 23, 1931 ~ August 26, 2015 Glenn died peacefully on August 26, 2015 in Vancouver, Washington. He was born on May 23, 1931 in Tankersley, Texas. Glenn was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Johnnie Sue, to whom he was married for almost 61 years. He is survived by his sister, Bette; sons and daughters-in-law, Kevin (Irene) and Brian (Carol); grandchildren, Sarah, David, Stephen, John Wesley and Emily; great-grandson, Nicholas; nieces and nephews. After graduating from West Texas State College with a B.S. in Chemistry and serving as an officer in the Navy, Glenn worked in the fields of aerospace and quality control. He was a loving Christian man, devoted to his family and the wider community. He served in the Kiwanis Club, Open House Ministries and the Missions Committee of his church, including mission trips to Senegal and Kazakhstan. His warmth, kindness and optimism touched those around him. A celebration of his life will be held at Columbia Presbyterian Church, 805 Columbia Ridge Drive in Vancouver on Saturday, September 5, 2015 at 1:00 p.m., with Reverend Fitz Neal presiding. A reception will follow. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Open House Ministries or the Johnnie Livingston Memorial Fund of CPC. Please sign Glenn's Guest Book at www.columbian.com/obits.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 06:34 PM

MM

“ Leave a condolence or a memory Our thoughts and prayers are with your families and friends at this time. We all look forward to the day John 5:25 will come true for all the ones we love and lost <http://www.jw.org/en/publications/books/dead-live-again-tract/>

MM - February 04, 2016 at 12:00 AM

MH

“ Glenn Livingston was a godly model of patience and joy in my teen years and I fondly remember sitting in the back seat of the green Rambler while he and Johnnie sang duets going down the road. Keven, Irene, Brian and Carol I share with you joy of a life of service and example of Gods grace to each one of us.

Mark Howe - September 04, 2015 at 12:00 AM