

Carmella Wilson

January 31, 1954 - May 30, 2024

Carmella, also known as Connie, was a shining example of love and compassion. Her warm smile and infectious laughter could light up even the dimmest of spaces. She played multiple roles in the lives of those around her with ease and grace, being an outstanding mother, grandmother, sibling, aunt, friend, and neighbor, and excelled in each one of them.

To my sister Connie, you will always be in my heart....these few days have been hard for me I keep thinking about the good times and bad but one thing I do know for sure is that you loved me sis and I loved you more than you ever ever know you were the Moma to momma's children and you will be missed by all of us.. You were the captain of the family hands down I learned a lot from you thanks for teaching me to be a strong women like you were until we see each other either in my next dream or when we meet at the GOLDEN GATES RIP I love you your little sister Micki the way you spell it lol.

Michelle

To my cousins,I love yall dearly and will always be there for all of you whenever you need me for any reason. I know its hard and your faith is being tested, but, God is your protection through it all. So let's continue to travel together and make memories while auntie is watching over us. May God keep you in strong peace while leaning on one another.Love your cousins Kanika and Mirachole

“ I know Miss Connie, since her daughter was 19. We came good friends. She was always very kind and sweet and understanding, lady and very charismatics of her children and her grandchildren. She was like a family friend to me. Wish all her family and friends the best and I always keep them in prayer.

“ From the very beginning, Connie was warm and welcoming. I met her while middle daughter, there I was, a nervous newcomer, and Connie embraced me with open arms. Her kindness never changed and only became more permanent when I became her son in law.

“ I met first met Connie at the mall in 1992 in Vancouver, WA. When we saw each other, we both had these big smiles on our faces. I had recently moved from California and I didn't know anyone in Vancouver outside my extended family. She invited me and my daughter to her home, and made us feel welcomed with her children. She was like the older sister I never had and was always there for me. Connie was such a kind, loving, giving, and genuine person, and most of all... a true friend who will never be forgotten. I love you Carmella Wilson. Rest easy Queen.

“ I met Connie before Kenya was even born. She was my hair client. My children were very young. My youngest son lived giving her big hugs. ❤️ She was one of the kindest people I have ever known. So encouraging!!! Always looked on the brighter side of things. Ms. Connie you were loved and appreciated.
