

Carol Lynn Georgoff

March 10, 1956 - April 7, 2015

CAROL LYNN HODGE GEORGOFF March 10, 1956 ~ April 7, 2015 "She had a great ear to listen and always a shoulder to lean on." Carol Lynn Hodge Georgoff, 59, passed away April 7, 2015 in Vancouver, WA. She was born March 10, 1956 at Norton Air Force Base, CA to Raymond and Angela Hodge. Carol attended primary school in Whitney, Oxfordshire, United Kingdom. After returning to the U.S., she graduated from Eisenhower High School in Rialto, CA and attended San Bernardino Valley College. Carol married Greg Georgoff and raised their daughter, Christine, moving to many parts of the country as an Air Force family before settling down in Vancouver. Carol loved traveling and especially enjoyed spending time with her family at Disneyland, and on the beaches of Hawaii. She always made the holidays extra special. From decorations to music, to the beautiful place settings and food, Carol put all of her love and effort into every detail. She was very active in the Catholic church, volunteering with the DAV Auxiliary and many other organizations, and giving of herself and her time to any family member or friend who needed help in any way. Carol had a special place in her heart for all children and babies. A snuggle and a song from Aunt Carol, and maybe a little treat sneaked in, would always calm down the fussiest kid. She will truly be missed by everyone who had the honor to know her. Carol is survived by her husband, Greg; daughter, Christine Georgoff; mother, Angela Hodge; sisters, Sheryl Willis and Kathleen Tracy Morris; brother, Michael Hodge; and many extended family members and friends. She was preceded in death by her father, Raymond Hodge; and great-nephew, Connor Willis. Arrangements by Evergreen Memorial Gardens. Services will be held at Holy Redeemer Catholic Church in Vancouver, WA on Fri., April 17 at 11:00 a.m. The family will hold a private burial service at Willamette National Cemetery.
