“ Mrs. Eilts was my 7th grade teacher (about 15 years ago). I used to stay after school and talk with her, help out with things around the classroom. I remember she had to take the last month of the school year off for medical reasons, so we wrote letters back and forth. She was a sweet and funny woman. She will be missed greatly.

“ What a sad, sad time. We knew Carole through her many visits to Texas to see her sister SanDee and SanDee's husband, Richard. Carole was always a pleasure to be around and we both enjoyed her visits. What a sweet and caring person she was. Brenda & Jim Cunningham

“ Dear Eilts Family, The first time I visited St Paul Lutheran Church Carole was assisting the pastor during the service. She read the prayers and helped with communion. At the end of the service she smiled at me, shook my hand and welcomed me to the church. I thought for sure she was the church's co-pastor because she displayed such warmth and welcome (and did her job so well!). Later, I learned that Carole was a parishioner with a great heart for volunteering for many projects and posts at the church. I will miss Carole reading the Bible at service, her quiet smile as she walked down the aisle after taking communion, and her friendly spirit. God's peace be with you. Jenn Barnes

“ Wendy, Beryl and Sandy: I can't even express how shocked and saddened I am about Carole. She was such a wonderful person--- but then you know that. I am very happy that we were able to spend New Year's with her. She looked great and was her usual cheerful self. I remember our two cruises with Carole. She was a great travel companion. Wendy, Brandy, too, is very sorry to hear about your mom. She enjoyed the cruise when you two were cabin mates. She remembers that time with great fondness. Wendy, I know everyone says this, but please let me know if there is anything I can do for you. Losing a parent is very difficult and especially one that you are so close to. I just want to be here to support you if I can. Very fondly, Pam Vanderheiden
