

Carolyn Gail Reichert

September 4, 1933 - December 3, 2012

Carolyn was born as Carolyn Gail DesBrisay in Portland, Oregon to Rufus and Marion DesBrisay. She lived in many parts of the United States and in Japan as a spouse of the Military. She and her husband made permanent residence in Vancouver, Washington in 1974. Carolyn retired in 1990 as a Janitor with the Federal Building in downtown Portland Oregon and spent most of her life as a Homemaker. Carolyn was married for 57 years to Earl Paul Reichert, who preceded her in Death on July 18th, 2008. She is survived by her brother, Michael DesBrisay of Crooked River, Oregon, her son David Reichert of Milwaukie, Oregon, and daughters; Gail Smith of Troutdale, Oregon, and Jean Burnett of Vancouver, Washington. She also has eight grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren. Carolyn died from complications of a cancer diagnosis in September. She has requested that no Funeral Service be held. Her remains will be entombed at Willamette National Cemetery on January 4th, 2013. Our mother was a very strong woman who fought this disease until the very end. Our family will truly miss her.
