“ I just heard about Carrie's passing today. Although extremely terrible to have such a wonderful human being taken from our planet where we needed her so much, it's a good thought to think that she is now watching over us all and helping everyone at a higher level now. She had a heart of gold. I will remember her specifically every Valentine's Day. She loved Valentine's Day. She is getting her "kitty fix" in the heavens now. Thinking of her having all that she ever wanted and being eternally happy makes me feel better. My condolences to all of her friends and family and people who knew and loved her... may they have the strength to go forward and live full and happy lives. A day at a time, a step at a time... healing is a process and time it's major component. Blessings to all.

“ Sorry I had not 'met you sooner. You were so sweet at Your Grandfather's Hospital room. He was so pleased to see you. My heart goes out to your Mother and Father.
