

Carrie Lealos

May 29, 1923 - August 19, 2016

CARRIE (ROSEN) LEALOS May 29, 1923 ~ August 19, 2016 Carrie Lealos, 93, longtime Vancouver, WA resident, passed away August 19 after a lengthy struggle with congestive heart failure. Carrie was born on a farm in North Dakota and met her now deceased husband, Leonard, in the beet fields. Moving to Seattle, she became a Rosy the Riveter in the shipyards, while Leonard served his country in the Merchant Marines. After the war, the couple migrated to Vancouver where Carrie gave birth to five children. She was a member of Our Lady of Lourdes parish and spent her spare time working on handcrafts, sewing, building dolls, and tole painting. Carrie is survived by two daughters, Kelley and Karen; and two sons, Ron and Tim. Leonard and one son, Bob, preceded Carrie in death. Services will be held at Evergreen Memorial Gardens on Friday, August 26 at 12:30. Please sign her Guest Book at www.columbian.com/obits.
