“ My heart goes out to all family and friends of Cassandra Nelson. I was Cassandra's neighbor for 11 years. Cassandra grew on me over the years, she was thoughtful and cared about what was going on around her. Cassandra always wanted to be helpful in any way she could.

Cassandra shared candy and goodies she made for holidays and just for fun. Cassandra gave several magazine subscriptions to my son and I over the years, always hanging on our front door with rubber bands for us to find. Cassandra will be thought of and remembered with a warm heart.
