“ Aunt Kay, you will always be in my heart. We shared precious times together as family, and as Aunt and Niece. Now you will be in the Heavens above with your sisters and brothers and can laugh and enjoy all the happy times that we all shared together. I will always love you. Linda P.S. Give my MOM a big kiss & hug and tell her I'm fighting the home fronts from here.

“ I met Kay when she moved to Reedsport & became my next door neighbor. We had many adventures, lots of laughs, some good cries & even a few arguments over are years. She was a wonderful friend and I have missed her for a long time. She's is in a better place now and doesn't hurt anymore. Hopefully she is getting all the avocado and bacon sandwiches her little heart desires. My love & sympathy goes out to Laura, Cathy, Molly and their families. We have lost a special lady.
