

Cathy E. Koyama-Heilmann

March 17, 1955 - September 8, 2013

"She was loved and respected by all who knew her." Cathy Koyama-Heilmann, 58, of Vancouver, WA, passed away Sun., Sept. 8, 2013, after a long illness. She was born in Washington state and spent much of her life in San Diego and Atascadero, CA. Cathy worked a wide variety of fields, but her life-long passion was gardening and horticulture. In later years, she became avidly involved in genealogy research. Cathy is survived by a large and diverse family. Those closest to her include her husband of 26 years, Daniel Heilmann; daughters, Amanda and Linda; granddaughter, Ava; and her sister and life-long confidant, Linda. A celebration of Cathy's life will be held Fri., Sept. 13, 2013. For information, call 360-604-1855.
