

Cecil Bruce Webley

December 29, 1927 - October 11, 2013

CECIL BRUCE WEBLEY December 29, 1927 ~ October 11, 2013 Cecil Bruce Webley, best known as "Papsy" among his family, left this world and stormed the gates of Heaven to be with the Savior he so loved at 12:30 a.m. Friday the 11th of October, 2013, after 85 years of bringing joy, encouragement and the message of the good news of Jesus into the lives of all he met. He was born the youngest of twelve children to JB Webley and Alma (Ewalt) Webley on Dec. 29, 1927 in Wenatchee, Washington. Papsy was surrounded by all of his children when he passed, singing the hymns he had so dearly loved. The last thing he heard, as he was ushered into eternal Joy with His Lord, was all his kids gathered around him singing, "O That Will be Glory for Me!" He then joined his oldest son Jared and is survived by his only living sibling, Norma Schmidt; his wife 58 of years, Donna; and their children: Aleta, Kim (and Beth), Becky (and Bud), Treesa (and John); 13 grandchildren, along with their seven delightful spouses; and 6 of the best great-grandchildren ever!!!! They will continue to be blessed by the legacy and memory of their sweet Papsy. A Celebration of Cecil's/Papsy's life is open to all who would like to come and will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Saturday the 19th of October at LifePoint Church, 305 NE 192nd Vancouver, WA 98684 - Sharing fond memories, fellowship and food will follow. -

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 07:20 PM

“ To the whole Webley Family- What a wonderful celebration of lifeto the man who touched so many lives, including my own! In these times of lose, words are so difficult to choose. My hope for all of you is peace within yourselves, and to remember always the joy Cecil brought to all! Kim--Fabulous job with eulogy. Treesa--your message was very heart felt. Great side notes from all the others. Rest in Peace Daddy Polcat! Signed, Chris Ingram

Chris Ingram - October 22, 2013 at 12:00 AM