“ Chad, every story your Mom has told me about you made my heart fill with joy. From what I hear, you were an amazing young man. I wish I would have shown up sooner so I could have met you but I do know this, you have a sister. A big sister. And I love you. I love your Mom too. She takes really good care of my dad, and that means the world to me.

“ Chad was a great friend. I remember during Peter Pan, he and Levi thought the mast was real. They tried climbing it. Luck was not on their side. It ended up breaking 'cause it was made out of cardboard. Chad ran away, leaving Levi on stage. Standing there awkwardly while Chad was laughing so hard, tears came out of his eyes.

“ Dearest Juli and Family, Our hearts are heavy with sadness for you all. This is so unfair. Please know that you are in our constant prayers. We hope you find peace in knowing that someday you will be reunited with Chad. We will always remember Chad and his beautiful smile, amazing sense of humor, and wonderful lemonade/toy stands during neighborhood garage sales. He was quite the irresistible salesman! His love for his kitties, and all animals, showed what a sweet, kind, beautiful soul he had. He'll have a big job in Heaven taking care of all his animals. We feel very blessed that we had the privilege to know him. We'll miss you Chad as you journey to your new home. All Our Love and God Bless, Jim, Lori, Taylor, and Mallory Anderson
